“Today, Modern Office Is Making Us Feel Increasingly Like Home”

We believe the main goal is to create the workplace where people want to be and without sacrificing elements between elegance and functionality. Other than natural touch with subtle tones, should be considered when creating a more homely and relaxing feel in the office. Though getting the balance right between contrast of elements are crucial; for a better working environment in order to feel the workplace like a home in a truest sense.

- NORMAN JAMAL DIN, industrial designer

AESTHETICS      as in materials combination

4_e realities represent a number of multiple divergent values, such as differences in all aspect and theories found within these inspiration. Some of the stylistic distinctions found in these diverse element realities reflects profound differences in design values and experiences.
